Schedule 2.1  Notice of employee representational rights
(regulation 2.05)

Fair Work Act 2009, subsection 174 (6)

The University of Queensland gives notice that it is bargaining in relation to an enterprise agreement which is proposed to cover all staff at the University - Academic, Professional and TESOL Language Teachers.

What is an enterprise agreement?

An enterprise agreement is an agreement between an employer and its staff that will be covered by the agreement that sets the wages and conditions of those staff for a period of up to 4 years. To come into operation, the agreement must be supported by a majority of the employees who cast a vote to approve the agreement and it must be approved by an independent authority, Fair Work Australia.

As you are a staff member who would be covered by the proposed agreement:

You have the right to appoint a bargaining representative to represent you in bargaining for the agreement or in a matter before Fair Work Australia about bargaining for the agreement.

You can do this by notifying the person in writing that you appoint that person as your bargaining representative. You can also appoint yourself as a bargaining representative. In either case you must give a copy of the appointment to the University by contacting Phil Vaughan, Senior Employee Relations Consultant.

If you are a member of a union that is entitled to represent your industrial interests in relation to the work to be performed under the agreement, your union will be your bargaining representative for the agreement unless you appoint another person as your representative or you revoke the union’s status as your representative.

Questions?

If you have any questions about this notice or about enterprise bargaining, please contact Phil Vaughan, a bargaining representative, go to www.fwa.gov.au, or contact the Fair Work Australia Help Line on 1300 799 675.
